"The Ottawa Spotlight"

(By Wilfrid Eggleston)

Ottawa, May 19th.—As soon as the budget debate was over the government proceeded with its address to His Majesty the King asking for an amendment to the British North America Act. The purpose of the amendment, briefly stated, is as follows:—

- (a) To make it legal for provinces to collect certain types of indirect taxation.
- (b) To provide for machinery for a loan council, under which those provinces desiring it, may secure a federal guarantee for their loans and refunding loans.

An unsuccessful attempt was made by J. S. Woodsworth, C. P. leader, to obtain from the government a statement of its policy in regard to the impasse situation. That is, to Empire defense, to the League of Nations, to sanctions, to the Italo-Ethiopian situation, and related matters. Mr. Woodsworth took the stand that the government ought to take the people into its confidence and say what commitments have been made and what plans are going forward for empire defense, what the official stand of Canada is going to be in the continuation of sanctions.

Time Not Ripe

The effort was unsuccessful at the moment because the principle was not stated, and in this he was warmly supported by Rt. Hon. R. B. Bennett, that the time was not ripe. No one can ever change the present ministry with reckless or foolhardy that great caution was required, and that the retention of the Canadian government in recent weeks had been much more useful to those attempting in Europe to keep the world at peace than any full dress show in Ottawa. Canadian House could have been, Mr. Mackenzie King did promise, however, that when the government considered it seemed and appropriate subject would be given adequate treatment in the House of Commons. This will probably be on the estimates of the External Affairs department. Whether the government's decision will come early or late will depend on development in Europe, and the statement as to our position is not to be looked for until the time is deemed right.

The first comprehensive reply to Social Credit contentions to come from Liberal ranks during the present session was delivered during the budget debate by Mr. Mackenzie King, publisher and economist, and member for North Huron. There was a preponderance of Social Credit speakers on the budget, and although several Liberals had previously spoken, none of them dealt with the arguments of the new party. Mr. King's reply debates have the Liberals answered the Social Credit challenge. While it is a feeling that it is possible to see to ignore the addresses of one's opponents, I suspect that some of it was due to lack of familiarity with the philosophy preached by Mr. Mackenzie King and his colleagues, and even in some instances to a feeling that it was dangerous to attack such a powerful new movement.

Mr. Mackenzie's Arguments
However that may be, the Liberal members for North Huron dealt with some of the leading theories of the new party. He took Mr. Blackmore to task for asking government help for the sugar beet industry, which he claimed, meant higher prices for sugar, when one of the points made by the Social Credit was that prices should fall as man's inventive genius made cheaper production possible. He assailed the familiar contention that the Social Credit was a consumption, and that a national dividend should be paid to distribute the surplus. He argued that while in some years, usually prosperous ones, production did somewhat exceed consumption, in such years as the last four or five the reverse was true, and consumption exceeded production reducing surplus stocks. In that event, he claimed, the national dividend would have to be reversed, and paid by the people to the government.

Mr. Mackenzie agreed that there was a cultural inheritance, but to large extent this was being distributed, he said, in the cheaper prices for things. A modern newspaper, new hundred years ago could not have been bought, he said, for price's worth; today a poor man could buy it for as much as the rich. He also attacked the Douglas theory that in the production of, say, a book, (most) buying power is produced to enable it to be bought by some one.

The Social Credit members were not slow in replying to this challenge, and a lively time is promised later. W. P. Kuhl, Social Credit member for Jasper-Edson told the member for Huron North: "If he has a chip on his shoulder I am going to knock both of them off."

DEATH OF SHIRLEY BELLS

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Bells and family were shocked and grieved because of the sudden death of Shirley Jean, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bells. Shirley was born in Strathmore on December 14, 1927, and passed away on Sunday, May 17th, 1936, in a Calgary Hospital after only one week's illness.

Surviving are her parents, a sister, Yerna and twin brothers David and John.

For three years Shirley had attended Landseer School and was exceptionally popular with her teachers and school mates.

Shirley was a particularly bright and winsome little girl, especially beloved by her own family and a general favorite of all who knew her, and her passing brings genuine sorrow to her many friends.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from the Park Memorial Chapel, Calgary, Rev. V. M. Gilbert of Strathmore conducting the services.

School mates of the deceased little girl acting as Pall Bearers were John Koeler, Fred Knight, Kramer Cooper, Richard Stanger, Dale Bushman and Jack Knight. The remaining school mates acted as flower bearers. Interment took place in Burnhamthorpe cemetery, under the direction of Guy Armstrong.

Mrs. Ralph Knight, sister of Mrs. D. V. Bells, and son George, former residents of the Tudor district now residing in Pendleton, Oregon arrived today to attend the funeral service for Shirley Jean Bells.

An emergency meeting of the Board of Health was held May 17th at the present Mayor Hughes, Dr. Giffen, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crowther, J. A. French, T. E. Wright, U. E. Quinn and S. T. W. Means. The meeting was called together to consider an outbreak of mumps amongst school children. The Medical Health Officer reported that the outbreak was of an alarming nature; that there were many cases; and that all possible steps should be taken to check the spread of the disease. The Board was called together to consider what steps were being taken to check the spread of the disease, and to consider the conditions of the quarantine, not only in the case of mumps, but in the case of other diseases. The Health Officer had given instructions that children be kept at home. The Medical Health Officer recommended that in case of mumps the quarantine should be effective for a period of 4

ALBERTA GIRL WINS PRAISE OF TORONTO NEWSPAPER CRITIC

Margaret Waterhouse, formerly of Lethbridge who has a wide circle of friends in Southern Alberta, was warmly praised earlier this month by Augustus Brille, writing in the Toronto Daily Star.

The critic wrote of Miss Waterhouse:—

"Margaret Waterhouse played a delightful piano recital at Conservatory Hall last night. This young artist has considerably advanced on her poetic recital of last year. She began with two Bach airs arranged for piano by Harriet Cohen; both sacred melodies of unusual beauty which the player was careful to display with true lyric delicacy and a subtle blend of joy and devotion. In the Toccata in G Minor she broke into dance rhythm of particular exuberance. Here, fully playing one hand against the other, she was able to give the rendition a figure dancing each in its own measure in a sort of wordless dialogue. It was something more than chorale technique of metrical rhythm and tone."

"Her Chopin group was a notable achievement. Five preludes of Op. 29 were played 'en suite' with particular regard for poetic sequence as a group. The one Etude was a brilliant interlude between the Preludes and the Fantasia in F minor, which was the most distinguished bit of tone poetry on the program."

The Gluck Moblie was skillfully played as a prelude to two romantic things by Schumann, the Nocturne in E major and the more popular Papillon. The player expressed the subtle contrast between the romantic idyls of Schumann and those of Chopin, who is never Teutonic, as Schumann is seldom anything else."

The Cesar Franck Symphonie Variations, with Agnes Logan Grant at second piano, was an impressive finale."

RAIL GRADING OF HOGS, A NEW MARKETING SYSTEM PROVES POPULAR

During the past four weeks one Alberta packing house has bought over two thousand hogs on a rail graded, dressed weight basis. This method of buying hogs has just been inaugurated in Alberta during the past four weeks, and from all reports, the farmers who have sold their hogs in this manner, are very well satisfied and are coming back again, to sell on the same basis.

A few words of explanation: the marketing of hogs on a dressed weight, rail graded basis, is exactly what the words imply. A farmer sells his hogs; these hogs are then tattooed with a number, so that they may be identified when they are killed. The live hogs are then weighed, so that a part down payment may be made. This down payment usually is 75 per cent of the live weight of the hogs. The hogs are then killed and weighed individually, to the exact pound. A Government grading inspector then grades the hogs according to their grade, according to standards as set up by the Federal Government, and the final payment is made on the basis of that grade. These grades correspond very closely to the present live grades, and the premiums and discounts paid are practically on the same basis. It will be easily seen that the Grading Inspector is able to do more efficient grading with the weight before him, as he is not now have to estimate weight, depth of backfat or thickness.

The marketing of hogs on a rail graded basis should be the standard (just as it has been in other countries) of increasing the volume and quality of Canadian hogs to such an extent that Canada will be second to none.

THE '36' PAYMENT

Word trickled over the wires from Regina at noon last Saturday that a credit had been set up by the Federal Government to make the 1936 '36' equalization payment. This was confirmed from Winnipeg shortly afterwards. Then the Alberta Wheat Pool's head office experienced the busiest afternoon for a long time.

Thirty thousand cheques covering this payment had been prepared for some time. It took weeks to make the list. Careful checking of accounts, the staccato rattle of a score of typewriters, the making up of the cheques, and further checking and re-checking, and last minute alterations caused by new assignments, occupied weeks before the mail was dispatched.

WEDDINGS

MR. GILBERT PATRICK WEDS PHOEBE READ AT OTTAWA WEDDING

St. Bartholomew's Church, Ottawa, was the scene of an unusually attractive and interesting wedding ceremony May 14 when Phoebe Gertrude, only daughter of the late Rev. Canon and Mrs. W. A. Read, was united in marriage to Mr. Gilbert Patrick, of Strathmore, Alberta, younger son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Merison Patrick.

Venerable Archbishop Netten, rector of the church officiated and the wedding music was impressively played by Mr. Frederick Johnson, the church organist.

Given in marriage by her cousin, Dr. H. P. Wright of Montreal, the bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Molly Robinson, of Bear River, N. S. as bridesmaid. Colonel Herold Ford attended the bridegroom, as best man.

After Mr. Patrick had his hair cut, the bride in a navy blue corded crepe costume, with touches of periwinkle blue. She wore a white-trimmed navy blue straw hat trimmed with brown and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaid was wearing a blue dress with a white collar and the wedding music was played by Mr. Frederick Johnson, the church organist.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the residence of Miss Wicketed. The hostess wore a gown of black velvet trimmed with Brussels lace, with which she wore past ornaments. Her hair was of black mohair.

Mrs. Ernest Fosbery, sister of the groom was wearing a gown of navy blue (faint) chiffon over yellow with a navy blue hat.

Among the guests from out of town were Right Hon. L. E. Ralph Sherman, Bishop of Calgary, and Mrs. Sherman; Dr. H. P. Wright, and Mrs. Gilbert Townsend, both of Montreal. Later Mr. Patrick, his bride, his father, and his mother, left on a trip to Strathmore, Alberta, where they will take up residence.

Strathmore friends extend felicitations to the happy couple, and Mrs. Patrick many years of happiness.

BAINTREE

The regular monthly meeting of the U. P. W. A. was held at the home of Mrs. M. D. Watson on Thursday last. After the meeting Mrs. Bell served a delicious lunch to about twenty-five ladies.

Mrs. D. Watson spent a few days in Calgary.

Baintree Juniors took a defeat at the hands of the Baintree Seniors on Thursday last. The score was 22 to 15. The local team did not get into action until after the game when they were too late to make the score. Among the remarks heard after the game was: "These Lambton fellows know how to play."

The girls softball team is making good progress under coach Dave Longbottom. For sweaters the team has chosen blue as its color. At a meeting arrangements were made for a dance to be held in Nightingale on June 12. Keep this date in mind.

Among the visitors to Calgary last week were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lamborne and Mr. and Mrs. L. Edgar.

Crops in this district look very promising. Roads are rough.

Little Edith Rier was the guest of honor on Sunday when several of her friends joined her to celebrate her 7th birthday. The children had a grand time with plenty of cake and ice cream.

This community joins in expressing its deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Holst of Landseer district in the recent death of their small daughter.

Credit was available at hand. A full staff turned out to enclose the cheques in the envelopes. This job was finished in a couple of hours and the automatic mailing machine was stamped and sealed the envelopes at a 7000 an hour clip, got in motion.

The Peace River area, which got a quarter of a million dollars in subsidies far off points were taken care of first, in order that mails might not be delayed. The mail was then rushed to the post office. Before the day ended the job was completed. Two and three-quarter million dollars had been mailed. The payment had been completed.

Say not the struggle naught availeth.
The labour and the wounds are vain.
The enemy faints not, nor faileth,
And as things have been they remain

If hopes were dunes, fears may be bars;
It may be, in you smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers
And, but for you, possess the field.

For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
For back, through creeks and inlets
making,
Comes silent, flooding in, the main,
And not by eastern windows only,
When daylight comes the light,
In front, the sun climbs slow, how slowly,
But westward, look, the land is bright!

"I have only one medicine to prescribe for the painter—an interest in living. The nature of the interest is his own problem; it may be metropolitan or rural, poetic or realistic;
but it must be genuine and exceptional. Unless he has this interest, his intelligent curiosity and relief for life, he will never be an artist. I do not ask him to celebrate America;
no self-respecting artist could glorify capitalism. I ask that he have some basic conviction, some point of departure. His business is not to teach,
but to reveal; to communicate mentally which may be confused, altered,
and enjoyed by an intelligent audience.
I do not mean that he must be free in the Bohemian sense; that he must live in a state of irresponsibility which prevents him from facing any moral experience. He must be free to question any system, creed or situation.

It would be a fine thing, if we had in America a dominant idealism, a spiritual force uniting artists in a common purpose, making them practitioners again, affording them legiti-mate markets and circulating their pictures. But I see no sign of the coming of this Utopia. In the absence of a Utopian scheme, the artist must adapt himself to realities, put living above painting, and do his best in the worst of worlds."

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two quarts of bile into your bowels daily. If this bile does not flow freely, your food does not digest.
It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up and poisons you into the body, and you feel weak,
and the world looks black.

A more liberal movement down takes away
the waste. You need something that works on the liver as well as takes down gas, and cleans a little. LIVER PILLS do just what you need. "Up and up" stimulates and purifies, they make the bile flow freely. They are the most of natural but have no harmful or purgative in them. Ask for LIVER PILLS, Little Liver Pills or name! It absolutely refuses anything else, etc.

How Big Is A Man?

A man's no bigger than the way
He treats his fellow man!
This standard has its measure been
Not by his early pomp or show
Displaying wealth possessed!
He's measured not by titles or creeds,
High-sounding words they be,
Nor by the gold that's put aside
For inequity.
He's measured not by social rank.
When character's the test.
Not by his early pomp or show
Displaying wealth possessed!
He's measured by his justice, right,
His fairness at his play.
His openness in all dealings made,
His honest, upright way.
To serve him when they can,
For none no bigger than the way law war anywhere on earth, they could very well succeed in their objective. France would eagerly subscribe to such a compact. So would Russia. All the Hitlerites, Mussolinis and Japanese militarists on earth would clutch their awns in the face of such a compact.

When peace was again restored in the world, the mad race of armaments, shambled and scientific and poison-phers could work peacefully and unafraid in a world freed of the terrors of war, maybe we could make real progress in ordering the affairs of this world. Elizabeth City (N. C.)
Independent.

NIGHTINGALE

Mrs. Ted McConnell entertained the
W. I. at her home last Thursday.
"A tribute to mothers" was the roll-out and was suitably answered by most members. A paper on tree planting and cultivation of the same was read by Mrs. C. Kimmet, convenor for agriculture. Work on the new quilt (a Dresden plate design) was promoted. It was decided to hold the dance postponed from April on May 29th and a committee was appointed to handle the dance. A chance on a auction will be given with every ticket sold for the dance. A social hour was spent over the tea cups while plans were formed for the coming summer. Ten members and four visitors were present. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leonard Hilton on May 28th.

—101—
Mrs. Stoddard and Hurd were Calgary visitors last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clark started for their new home in California last Monday. They expect to go east before settling down.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Peters are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son
in Calgary on May 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hilton and children have been quite ill with flu.

Mrs. Atkins, who has been visiting with her daughter Mrs. Southall for several months, returned to her home
at Sylvan Lake.

Mrs. Florence Downey and children have enjoyed a week's visit with her parents. They returned to Glebeville last Sunday.

—101—
Don't forget to come to the W. I.
dance at the hall on May 29th. You will be sure to have the usual good time.

STRATHMORE DISTRICT FESTIVAL CANCELLED

Teachers, pupils and parents are all alike disappointed though there seemed no other choice.

The Musical and Dramatic Festival of Strathmore and surrounding schools, for which weeks of preparation have been given, has had to be cancelled. An epidemic of mumps which is so general as to make it most unwise to bring together a gathering composed largely of children and teen age youth is the reason for cancelling the Festival. Postponement even if one could be assured of no further cases after the quarantine would bring one right to the door of examinations.

For the children the training received has had its cultural effect, but apart from this there remains a disappointment.

We will hope for more fortunate conditions next year.

CHEADLE

Mrs. L. P. Lewis returned to her home in the Cheadle district last week after spending some years in the Keith Sanatorium.

Mrs. M. McKenzie returned home after spending the winter at the coast.

Rev. Mr. Gilbert has organized a choir of the girls around Cheadle, to sing at his services held each Sunday
in the Cheadle Community Hall.

Mr. Jack Kirton secured a job in the A. P. Elevator at Stranmillis.
Best wishes for a prosperous job
Jack.

Mrs. Helen Lowe spent the last week end in Calgary with her sister.

We wonder if bicycle riding is Mr.
Fred Hittle's new hobby or does he do it for his health.

NAMAKA

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbrother of Calgary accompanied by their daughter Lillian spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Higgs, the occasion being her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Fair-brother are leaving shortly on a three months vacation to London, England.

Service Sunday was well attended.
Five new members being enrolled.

The place of the Ladies Aid meeting has been altered this week and the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Watts, Namaka, instead of Mrs. Gilbert's as previously announced.

Mrs. Hae and Mr. Jackson of Langdon were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Little.

Seeding in the district is almost completed and some of the grain is up about three inches. With plenty of moisture everything should get away
to a good start.

IN MEMORIAM
 In loving memory of William Winkler, who died May 24th, 1934. Quickly and quietly came the call. His sudden death surprised us all. We have lost but God hath gained. One of the best of the world continued. His life was one long sacrifice. His heart was true and tender. He toiled so hard for those he loved. Then left us to remember. Sadly missed by his wife and family.
